IND 2233 : CNC MACHINERY

This course introduces the concepts and capabilities of computer numerical control machines. Topics include setup, operation, and basic applications. Upon completion, students should be able to explain operator safety, machine protection, data input, program preparation, and program storage.

Credits 3
Lecture Hours 3
Lab Hours 0