

NRN 1506 : NURSING THEORY I

This course introduces the student to foundational concepts, including pharmacology, which are essential for professional nursing practice. Patient-centered care, therapeutic communication and professional standards are emphasized throughout the course.

Credits 6

Lecture Hours 6

Lab Hours 0

Corequisites

NRN 1513

Semester Offered

Fall only