

Non-Credit Programs

Adult Education

The Adult Education Department offers a variety of classes for individuals working to improve their skills and knowledge. All classes provided by the Adult Education Department are free to the public. Adult Education classes are offered throughout the year. More information about services provided can be found on-line at www.uaccb.edu or by contacting the Adult Education department.

Below is a listing of classes and testing offered:

- GED Preparation for adults who have not finished high school.
- GED Testing
- Classes in reading, writing, and math for individuals with a high school diploma, but who lack these necessary skills for job advancement or for enrollment in college.
- English as a Second Language (ESL) for adults.
- Customized basic skills training for business and industry.
- Distance Education Program which includes online instruction for students unable to regularly attend traditional classes.

Classes are offered during day and evening hours. Students choose the hours that are most convenient to their family and work schedules. Classes are offered on the UACCB campus and in Cherokee Village at the Choctaw Center; satellite classes are periodically offered in rural locations in Independence and Sharp Counties.
